

ZODI FIRE COIL™

ABOUT

The Zodi™ Fire Coil™ is designed for convenience, delivering hot water with just a camp fire. Simply connect the Fire Coil™ to an elevated water jug and place the coil in the camp fire. Water flows from the elevated jug, through the hot coil, into the empty lower water jug. Lightweight and compact. Great for heating solar showers at night. Each 4 ft hose has a universal adapter end that pushes onto most water jug valve spouts. (Water jugs not included.) Made in U.S.A.
